29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Catholics United for The Faith

1

3	"I am the and there is no other."
6	"Give to the LORD the due his name." Ps 96
7	The will to have material
-	goods beyond those needed to achieve one's good purposes and fulfill one's responsibilities.
8	The LORD grasped his right hand.
9	"The went off and plotted how they might entrap
	Jesus in speech."
10	"Repay to what belongs to Caesar"
13	Paul sent a letter to them.
15	"Whose is this and whose inscriptions?"

"Toward the rising and the setting of the ____ people may know there is none besides

... though you knew me

18 "I have called you by your

Across

me."

Down "Worship the LORD in holy ." Ps 96

- "There is no besides me." 2
- The surrender of every good which does not contribute to the carrying out of one's personal vocation.
- "Our gospel did not come to you alone, but also in power and in (two words)
- 11 "For great is the LORD and highly to be _____ " Ps 96
- 12 "Is it lawful to pay the to Caesar or not?" (two words)
- 14 "Say among the nations, the
- LORD is _____." Ps 96
 16 "It is I who ____ you, though you know me not."