

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Catholics United for the Faith

Across

- 3 "Keep me as the ____ of your eye." Ps 17
- 5 Jesus said those who attain the resurrection of the dead can no longer ____.
- 8 The four last things are death, judgment, ____, hell.
- 9 These Jews denied there is a resurrection.
- 10 The branch of theology that deals with the end of time and the last things.
- 12 "He is not God of the ____ but of the living,"
- 16 The reuniting of each person's soul and body at the end of time.
- 17 Jesus said those who attain the resurrection of the dead will be like ____.
- 19 "The King of the world will raise us up to ____ again forever."
- 20 "That the dead will rise even ____ made known in the passage about the bush,"
- 21 Today's Gospel writer.

Down

- 1 Today we hear from a letter to these.
- 2 St. Paul asked for prayers that "we may be delivered from perverse and ____ people"
- 4 A king tried to force the brothers to eat this.
- 6 "Jesus said to them, 'The children of this ____ marry and remarry . . .'"
- 7 The first reading is from this book.
- 11 At the resurrection the bodies of the just will be ____ and have special properties.
- 13 The Sadducees asked a question about seven ____ who all married the same woman.
- 14 In the first reading, this many brothers were arrested and tortured.
- 15 "Hide me in the shadow of your ____." Ps 17
- 18 "Pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may ____ forward and be glorified,"